Historical Note

Bishop Maginn was started in September for the 1977-1978 school year after a merger of two other school, Vincentian Institute and Cardinal McCloskey High School as the single Diocesan high school in the City of Albany at the same location as Cardinal McCloskey High School. Daughters of Charity who had been teaching at Cardinal McCloskey High School came over to Bishop Maginn when the school merged. Due to operating costs of the school and the number of vocations, the Daughters withdrew after the 1993-1994 school year.
