Historical Note

Alamo Catholic High School opened in 1966, when Prince Memorial College was discontinued and the curriculum was re-organized into a six year co-educational high school. It was operated and sponsored by a consortium of Catholic parishes in the Amarillo, TX area. After the closure of Amarillo Air Force Base, enrollment sharply and suddenly declines, leading to a series of financial issues, and the school was reorganized again for the beginning of the 1973-74 school year to ensure budgetary stability. In 1990, the school relocated to the west wing of St. Joseph Catholic School due to persistent problems in the maintenance of the building. After renovations, the school was renamed Holy Cross Catholic Academy and rededicated on October 11, 2000. It is the only Catholic High School in the Diocese of Amarillo.
